September 2009 Newsletter

The faculty and staff of Principle Dance are excited to welcome our new and returning students to the 2009-2010 class season! Please do not hesitate to contact our friendly office staff if you have any questions, comments or suggestions. You can refer to future newsletters for important dates and information. We thank you for the opportunity to learn and dance with you!
Heather, Shannon, Kaitlan, Shari, Rachel, and Betty

Principle Dance Studio is continuing with its resident dance company: Aster Brio
Congratulations to this year's members: Brigitte Collazo, Allison Hornung, Annie Mitchell, and Adriana Williamson. Heather Overbeck will serve as the company's director.

Aster Brio Dance Company will be performing and giving kinesthetic workshops in area retirement homes throughout October. We will also perform during Riverside's Holiday Stroll and give a community dance concert in December. If you would like to schedule Aster Brio to perform at an event or school, please e-mail Heather at Director@PrincipleDance.com

Miss Heather will be performing this month with Project 606 Dance, a Chicago Contemporary Ballet and Modern Dance Company. The upcoming show will take place on September 12th at 8:00 pm at The Ruth Page Center, 1016 N. Dearborn Parkway, Chicago. Reserved tickets are recommended, and available by calling 312-337-6543. Admission is $20 General, $15 Student. For more information visit www.project606dance.com

Congrats to Miss Shannon for receiving a full scholarship to attend the prestigious Jacob's Pillow Choreographer's Lab in Becket, MA! Her students will certainly benefit from her on-going study of new ways to create dances.
